

2023 Fall Ladies Coaching Program

Come out and enjoy some fun with a group of ladies to learn the basic skills to play your best golf in 2023. From Beginner to intermediate skill levels, this program is fantastic for meeting new friends and gaining confidence in your ability to perform on the course. Class focus will be on skill building activities. Each class will begin with an intro of each session topic, followed by activity, then individual attention. Finally we will end each session with a game to put your skills to the test. Main objective is to have fun while building friendships and skill.
